An Interesting Lecture to the Boys of the Gymnasium Class-The Effects of Bodily Exercise Shown.

A highly interesting lecture was delivered by Dr. George Ben. Johnston before the classes of the Young Men's Christian Association gymnasium in the symnasium hall last evening on "Breathing as a Fine Art."

Dr. Johnston demonstrated the points of his lecture with a sectional cast of the lungs, illuminated charts and a live subject. The boys in gymnasium suits occupied perches on the ladders, horigental bars and such like vantage ground. while a number of chairs on the floor were filled with members and visitors. The lecture was shorn of all technical exessions, and the subject elucidated in a at once direct and interesting onstruction and functions of the ations of the various muscles to the spiratory movements practically illused with Professor Horace F. Smith a model. The action of the lungs as furnace where all the impurities of ne inner man are collected and de-troyed, where the ever-waging battle of vitality against threatened death is going on, was most attrac tively presented.

The effects of bidily exercise on the lungs and the important part they play in its purification were brought down to the simplest understanding. The act of sneezing, sighing, coughing, yawning, incoughing, in cause and effect, were all crestingly explained.

he manner of improving the respiratory ction was also given, and the lecture as the coughly appreciated. Professor Smith followed Dr. Johnston with a few hints to business men who end their time over desks and ledgers keeping up their health by proper anner of breathing. A short exhibition of class work by the juniors closed the

WANT WATER METERS.

THE COMMITTEE DECIDE THAT THEY HAVE BECOME NECESSARY.

The Matter to be Referred to the Council, A Meeting of the Guardians of Our Health-Market Stalls.

The Committee on Water held its monthly meeting in the Council Chamber last evening. There were present: Chairman J. W. White, Colonel John B. Cary and Messrs. Charles E. Brauer, N. B. Grooms, John Mann, Jr., and John S. Trower.

A resolution introduced by Mr. Stratton in the Common Council was taken up, which asks for a better water supply for the residents on Marshall strest between Broad and Leigh and Seventh and Twelfth streets. After some discussion the committee decided to refer to the Council mittee decided to refer to the Council the report of Superintendent Bolling as answer to the resolution. The report, which was made in October last, advocates the general introduction of water meters to prevent the large waste of water and increase the pressure in the mains, thereby increasing the water supply where at present it is so badly needed. The report also sets forth that if the The report also sets forth that if the council refused to agree to the introduc tion of water meters, it would be neces sary to enlarge the pumping facilities and lay an additional forty-eight inch water main from the New reservoir into the

Dr. Oppenhimer stated that the furnace of the crematory was filled with garbage, and would be given a thorough test. He thought that it would be at full blast by noon to-day, and invited the committee to inspect the same.

On motion of Mr. Davis the committee decided to order three new garbage carts.

They will be built under the supervision of Chairman Reeve, Mr. King and Dr.
Oppenhimer. It is thought that with the three carts already on hand and the three new ones it will be possible to remove all the garbage promptly in the four districts of the city, at least up to the middle of June next.

Mr. Grimes moved that the committee ask for the appointment of Policeman Marion Sutton as sanitary officer for the Fourth district, and that the chairman be requested to notify the chief of police of the action of the committee. This was agreed to without a dissenting vote Mr. King stated that he had just visited the crematory, and had found the roof to be in need of repairs and painting. The main feature of the convention of most interest to the Southern members was the amendment offered by Mr. Walts, of Kentucky, in-serting the word white into the section of serting the word white into the section of the constitution relative to the qualifica-tions for membership. This aroused ex-cited discussion, and while the majority of the members were in favor of the amendment, it failed of the necessary amendment, it falled of the necessary two-thirds vote, and the colored brother is eligible to membership for another year. The Southern members have rea-son to feel encouraged, however, as the sentiment in favor of the exclusion of the negro is increasing, and they hope at the next meeting to be able to pass the amendment.

The basis of representation in the assembly was increased from one delegate to each four hundred members to one delegate for each hundred members, with a proviso that each State have a delegate-at-large. This will give the Southern divisions a larger representa-tion next year than they have had in

What the Kentucky and Tennessee Ladies

Are Doing.

The ladies of the Tennessee department of the Memorial Bazaar held a very enthusiastic meeting in the Camp Hall yesterday afternoon. The attendance large, and a good deal of routine ness was transacted. A sample of the battle-flag was submitted which will be sold as a souvenir during the bazaar. The specimen is very neat, and gotten up in an artistic style. The ladies will, no doubt, realize a big amount out of th sale of these flags, especially for the rea-son that the ladies of the Camp will be the only ones who can sell the souvenirs A great many confributions have al-ready been received, and their number will largely increase before the opening of the bazsar. # MAKING people for nearly two weeks past, During that time I have heard from a good number of your most literary people, who have requested A CATALOG, SPECIMEN PAGES and SAMPLE ILLUS-TRATIONS of the Masterpieces in Book-making, which I offer for

You needn't class me among the ordinary "book peddlers" whom you've learned to dread. I sell BOOKS that are extremely valuable and exclusive, my specialty being the LIMITED EDITIONS DE LUXE of the Works of the World's Foremost Authors. Being LIMITED EDITIONS the works you buy from me always ADVANCE IN VALUE.

As an instance of what I state, my EDITIONS of HUGO, which, when it first appeared, was aold at $2.50 a volume, is now worth $4.50 for each and every volume in the set. Quite an increase, isn't it? The work has only recently been completed, showing an increasing value almost before the last volume was published.

My representative will soon visit you. But send to me for a CATALOG. It will be cheerfully sent aud you'll be greatly interested in it.
